Independent's Ballot Battle To Be Decided By Court

Only the skeleton remains of a portion of the old junior high school building here. Destruction of the building continues and is to be completed before school begins in late August.

Starkness of the building was emphasized by special photographic process.

County Judge Carroll Brown must appear before District Judge Gene Jordan tomorrow morning to show cause for refusal to have the name of Francis B. "Guy" Davis placed on the ballot for the November general election.

Davis is seeking to oppose Bill Butler, incumbent Republican, for the post of county commissioner of Precinct 4.

Records reflect that Davis and many of his supporters have been active in the American Party which ran George Wallace for President in 1968.

Judge Brown's position will be defended by Randall County Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen acting in his capacity as county attorney.

Dowlen said he plans to mount a two-pronged attack on the Davis petition for mandamus.

Dowlen said he will contend that the people who signed a petition to put Davis on the ballot did not do so before a notary public. He stated that the law provides that a citizen without legal authority may not administer an oath that is binding and that for this reason none of the signatures are valid.

"My second point will be an interpretation of Article 13.50 of the Election Code which reflects that Mr. Davis was timely in filing his petition," Dowlen said. "However, another section of the Election Code, 1347a, specifies that he should have filed his intention to run at the same time as other candidates which was Feb. 2."

Davis has charged politics in the Brown refusal.

Brown is running for judge of the 181st District Court as a Republican. Davis has accused Brown of refusing to allow his name on the ballot in order to spare Butler an opponent in the general election.

Buff Club Hires Randy Matson

Randy Matson, one of the world's better known athletes, has been hired as Executive Secretary of the West Texas State University Buffalo Club and Administrative Assistant to the Director of Athletics.

Boyce Box, president of the board of directors of the Buffalo Club, and West Texas State University director of athletics Joe Kerbel combined to make the announcement here Monday.

The 25-year-old Matson will assume his duties Aug. 1. He has been employed by Payne-Weber-Jackson and Curtis, a national stock brokerage firm, in its Houston Office.

Matson, the world-record holder in the shot put and a 1968 Olympic gold medal winner, will direct fund-raising for the Buffalo Club, a newly formed organization which will provide scholarship money for West Texas State University's athletic program.

"It is a real challenge for me to be involved in a situation I feel can go no way but up," Matson told newsmen Monday.

Matson said he cut short his career in stock broking mainly because of his continuing interest in athletics.

In the same vein, he said he will probably compete in the 1972 Olympics in Munich.

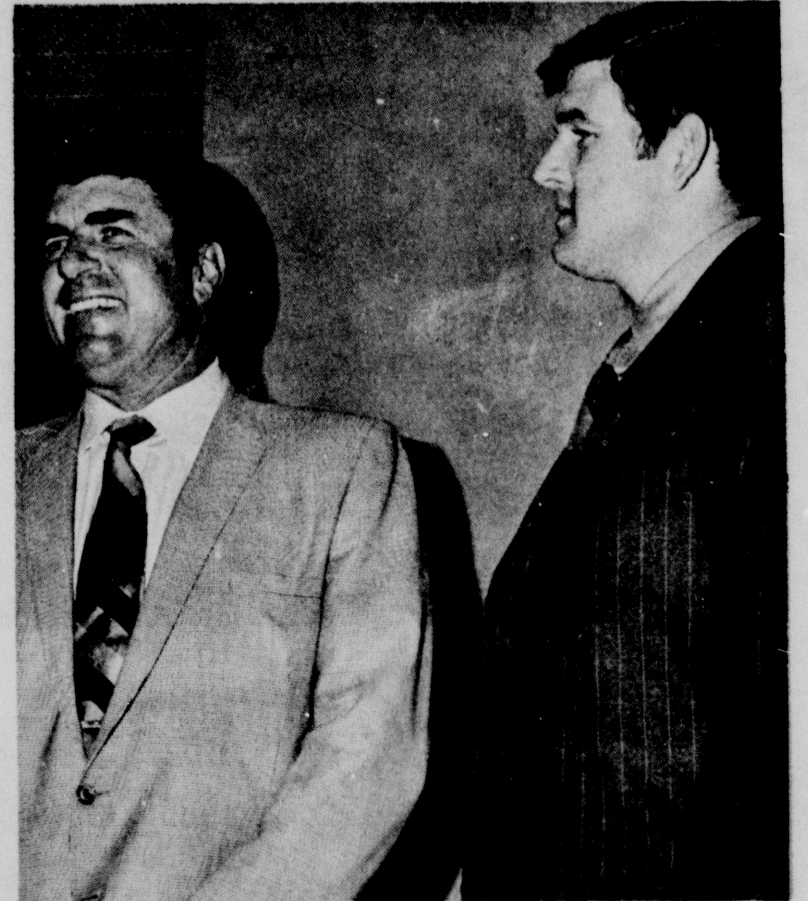

The former Pampa resident not only made headlines throughout the world with his track exploits, but as an all-around athlete. Although he played only one year of collegiate basketball and no collegiate football, he was drafted in both basketball and football by both professional leagues.

Matson, who is 6-7 and 268, set the world shot put record April 22, 1967, during a meet at College Station with a 71-5½ effort. That record came only 14 days after he performed the greatest double win in the shot and discus. On that day (April 8, 1967) he put the shot 70-5½ and hurled the discus 213-9.

He is the only man who has ever thrown the shot over 70 feet. He had a 71-4½ effort this spring. During the winter and spring seasons this year Matson was undefeated. He plans to compete in the 1972 Olympics in Germany.

Born March 5, 1945 in Kilgore, Tex., Matson and his parents moved to Borger and then to Pampa before he reached school age. He first threw the shot as a sixth grader and recalls that he placed fifth or sixth and (See BUFF, Page 3)

Commission To Request Road North Of WTSU

Randall County commissioners Monday voted to request a farm to market road from the proposed overpass at Hunsley Road to South Washington.

Commissioners made the move at the urging of Virgil Henson, financial vice president at West Texas State University.

Henson told the court that such a road would serve as an approach to both the West Texas State campus and Buffalo Bowl.

The paved facility would run north of the campus, a segment of it crossing university land, and feeder roads could carry traffic either to Buffalo Bowl or the north side of the campus.

"The north side of the campus is where parking area is being developed," Henson pointed out.

Henson said the university would supply right of way across its property to connect Hunsley Road to an existing dirt road east of the Santa Fe Railroad tracks.

Commissioner Bill Butler made the motion which was seconded by Commissioner Clarence Beckman. The request will be filed with the Texas Highway Commission.

In other business the court agreed to meet with the Canyon city commission at 7 o'clock the evening of Aug. 6 in the Canyon city hall annex to discuss services the two governmental subdivisions provide for each other and payment for those services.

There was no discussion of the matter.

S. O. Callahan and Stanley K. Davis, Amarillo, were appointed as Randall County representatives on the airport zoning board. They replace L. A. Pitt and V. H. Curtis.

Bill Butler announced the awarding of a paving bid to the Lee Milligan Company. The firm agreed to resurface 5 miles of road at $3,500 a mile.

Appointment of judges for the November general election was discussed but no action was taken.

Canyon Pioneer, Shelnutt, Dies Here On Saturday

An era ended in Canyon Saturday with the death of Charles Porter Shelnutt.

Mr. Shelnutt, 95 years old, died in Neblett Hospital. He had lived in Canyon 72 years and had seen the Texas Panhandle grow up.

He was born in Coryell County, Texas, May 29, 1875—a year before General George Custer and his men were massacred by the Sioux Indians at the Little Big Horn.

He was married on Christmas Eve in 1896 to 16-year-old Minnie Rusk. Mrs. Shelnutt preceded her husband in death in 1964.

After their marriage the Shelnutts farmed for two years near Stephenville then struck out for Randall County in a covered wagon in 1898.

They arrived on a Saturday evening in August and Mr. Shelnutt went to work immediately on a stock farm.

Mr. Shelnutt was the last survivor of the some 60 persons who voted in Canyon's first city election. He helped build the city's first brick building.

Mr. Shelnutt went into the transfer business and it was while he was in this business that West Texas Normal—later to become West Texas State University—came to Canyon. In fact, he was one of the contributors to a $100,000 fund which brought the school to the Randall county seat town.

Mr. Shelnutt once recalled that he bought nine lots in Canyon for $525 with all improvements. He traded that for a quarter section of land in Floyd County and sold it for $1600.

In the early days the Shelnutts lived in a dugout. Mr. Shelnutt once recalled of having killed a bear with an axe. "A big fellow he was, too," he recalled.

Mr. Shelnutt was a member of the Assembly of God Church.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

Officiating was Rev. A. J. Pettit, pastor of Canyon Assembly of God Church, assisted by Dr. J. E. Low. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Hershey Williams, Max Brummett, W. M. Higdon, Leonard Jones, W. A. Loven and Benny Cooper.

Survivors include three sons, C. C. of Canyon, W. E. (See SHELNUTT, Page 3)

"Because adults do," is the best of a hundred or so answers to the question, "Why does youth do so many things that are so threatening to our way of life?"

Low Sees Ibo Revolt, Lives With Nigerians

BY TROY MARTIN
Jonathan Low has returned to Canyon with some firsthand accounts of the war in Nigeria after two years in that African country as a worker with the Baptist Foreign Mission program.

"You never read the Nigerian side in the papers in the United States," Low declared. He said the Ibo tribe which made up Biafra had a public relations outfit that kept Biafra's interests in the public eye.

Low was no stranger to Nigeria. His father, Dr. Ed Low, who now is a member of the Neblett Hospital staff, served as a medical missionary there while Jonathan was a youngster.

Briefly, the war in Nigeria began when the Ibos rebelled against the federal government.

Low said the Ibos are relatively aggressive in their life-style and seem to obtain good education and rise to many of the top jobs. When an Ibo gets a good job in an area traditionally occupied by another tribe, it can sometimes lead to resentment, Low said.

For this reason the rest of the people in Nigeria were jealous of them and envied them their affluence. He said the discrimination against the Ibos was an individual matter and never a policy of the federal government.

Low noted that General Yakubu Gowon, head of state, has always been ready to accept the Ibos back into "One Nigeria" if they would renounce their secession.

Low looks upon Gowon as one of the outstanding leaders of Africa. "He is a wise man and a fair leader," said

Low.

Newspaper reports in this country have stated that a great deal of the food and clothing sent to Biafrans were never distributed. One national news magazine said the Nigerian government diverted much of the transport earmarked for this distribution.

The same magazine reported that powdered milk furnished by the Dutch was used to patch chug holes in Nigerian roads rather than going to feed starving Ibo children.

Low doubts that these reports are true. "Evidently news reports here concerning the Nigerian war were extremely one-sided. Did you ever hear of the atrocities the rebels committed against the federal forces?" he asked.

He said there is some starvation in the country (See LOW, Page 3)

Little League All-Stars To Sectional Tournament

Canyon's Little League All-Stars are headed for the sectional tournament in Lubbock after wins this week over Memphis and Spearman.

The team won the district tournament held in Hereford Monday and Tuesday.

They must win three games in Lubbock to advance to the state tournament the following week in Austin.

The Little Leaguers go against the winner of the El Paso Tournament at 3:30 p.m. Monday in Lubbock. Location of the game will be announced Sunday.

In action this week, the All-Stars blanked Spearman 2-0 Monday night. Mel Fox was winning pitcher for the team. He allowed four hits and no runs and struck out 15 men.

James Walling drove in one winning run while Stacey Brewer scored the other on an error.

In Tuesday night action, the All-Stars edged Memphis 13-11.

Hoss Ratliff was winning pitcher with the help of Ken Cooper.

Canyon had the Memphis team down 12-3 at the 4th inning, but Memphis came back strong in the next two.

Ben Cooper, president of the League in Canyon, said Wednesday the All-Stars need about $300 to make the trip to play in Lubbock.

Donations can be made through Cooper, Coach Phil Langen or Dick Dawdy.

New Telephone System To Be In Use Sunday

At 12:01 a.m. Sunday, a new telephone system will go into service at West Texas State University.

Called Centrex, the new system will improve telephone service on, to and from the campus. Each telephone on campus, including those in residence halls, will have a separate number. Calls from off-campus may be dialled directly to the West Texas State number.

The initial cutover will include about 1500 telephones in residence hall rooms and administrative offices. Each dormitory room will have a telephone. Projections call for about 2,000 telephones in the system within two years.

With Centrex, each telephone on campus will have an individual number.

Callers from off campus may reach a campus number by dialing the seven digits. Callers on-campus need dial only the last four digits to reach another campus number. To call off campus from a college phone, the caller will dial "9" and then the seven digit number.

The new system will not eliminate college operators. The operators will be available for number information and to assist on certain types of calls. Instead of working at a large switchboard, however, the operators will work at individual consoles. Currently, all calls to and from the campus go through the university switchboard.

"The Centrex system was approved by the West Texas State administration to provide the most modern telephone service for the campus," said Wesley Byrom, Southwestern Bell's account manager for the university.

"The system was engineered to meet the calling habits of West Texas State students and administrators as reflected in studies conducted over a two year period," Byrom added.

When the installation is complete, dormitory residents may dial their own station-to-station long distance calls. Each call will be billed to the room telephone from (See PHONE, Page 3)

Mrs. Billie Ward, WTSU Operator, uses one of the new operator consoles installed in conjunction with the cutover of a new telephone system at the university. This console and two smaller consoles will replace the standard switchboard used at the college with the old system. The new system, called Centrex, goes into service at 12:01 a.m. Sunday.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Bartee Haille, Jr., was back in the news this week. He was shot in the arm Sunday night in a Houston shoot out between black militants and the Houston police.

Haille, who is white, was on the West Texas State University campus in the spring of 1968 trying to organize a chapter of Students for a Democratic Society.

While here he bragged that one of his friends was in the group which assaulted the Oakland draft center earlier. During the visit Haille admitted that he is a revolutionist but said he and his group would accomplish change without violence.

News reports from Houston said Haille was at a rally staged by People's Party II, a black armed group. The report said Haille declined to say if he had a gun but said that of the 50 persons in the headquarters with him many were armed.

"We just weren't armed well enough," Haille said.

During the 1968 visit Haille attended a meeting of the McCarthy for President Club at the Newman Center.

The SDS organizer was reported to have led a group to Chicago for a part in the riots at the Democratic Convention later in 1968.

It was people of Haille's ilk that Senator Ralph Yarborough sided with when he endorsed Eugene McCarthy. The senior Senator can belly-ache about the smear campaign that defeated him til dooms day but it was this stand that laid him low.

The people of Texas want no part of Bartee Haille, Jr., Eugene McCarthy OR Senator Ralph W. Yarborough.

A farm to market road parallel to the campus and connecting the E-Way and South Washington is being requested by commissioners court.

I certainly hope the road becomes a reality. As Virgil Henson, West Texas State vice president, pointed out it will serve both the WTSU campus and Buffalo Stadium.

As the university grows better access to the campus will be a must.

It tickles me when I hear people talking about the President's Southern strategy.

Richard Nixon has no hope of being a two-term President. He kissed that good bye when he went into Cambodia. He is trying to do the best he can for his country.

I don't think he really WANTS to be President again. What man in his right mind would choose another four-year hitch at the toughest job in the world.

The President is being kicked in the teeth verbally because he just doesn't pull up stakes in Vietnam and come home. The truth of the matter is that he can't.

For us to pull out of Vietnam before the South Vietnamese are able to take over would bring upon us a debacle that would make Dunkirk look like a British victory. There's no telling how many Americans would be killed in the evacuation.

An unusual hearing will be held Friday morning in 47th District Court.

George Dowlen, a Democrat, will be defending County Judge Carroll Brown, a Republican, against Francis B. "Guy" Davis, a self-styled independent who was associated with the American Party in 1968. Davis is seeking a mandamus to force Judge Brown to order Davis' name placed on the ballot in November to oppose Republican Bill Butler for commissioner of Precinct 4.

Some observers see the Davis action as a move to keep the American Party alive in Randall County until 1972 when George Wallace is expected again to run for President on that ticket.

Bufs Sign Baseballers

West Texas State University baseball coach Bob Sloan announced Wednesday the signing of three high school athletes to scholarship agreements for the fall.

They are Tony Cazzell of Stillwater, Okla., Larry Coats of Garber, Okla., and Dean Parker of Woodward, Okla.

Cazzell, an outfielder, is playing for the Stillwater American Legion team this summer where he is hitting .363.

Coats has a four-year pitching record in high school of 32-8. This summer he is playing for the Enid, Okla., American Legion team where he has a 9-1 record as a pitcher.

Parker, a shortstop, boasts a .411 batting average in high school. He plays this summer for the Woodward American Legion team where he is batting .348 through 68 games.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN
"Christian" America disparages "heathen" India for allowing sacred cattle to overrun the country. They roam at will, free to devour the workers' fields and gardens, while men, women, and children starve to death by the thousands. And millions exist on the level of stray dogs. But what about our own herd of "sacred cattle"?

Crime is the leader of America's ravaging sacred cows. Our modern criminal has been sired by the Supreme Court, and is being groomed, fostered, and shielded by unscrupulous lawyers who defend him at the taxpayers' expense.

Crime is increasing almost 12 times as fast as the population. Government figures indicate that acts of terrorism have reached "menacing proportions." Nearly 41,000 bombings and bomb threats were recorded between Jan. 1, 1969, and April 15, 1970. Homemade bombs killed 43 persons, injured 387, and caused property damage of $21.8 million.

Soaring burglary rates and increasing civil insurrection has made locks, burglar alarms, and other home barricades a most lucrative business. Experts agree, however, that it is impossible to secure one's home against thieves and robbers. It takes the professional housebreaker about three minutes to get into the average locked house.

Currently popular security devices range from key-operated window locks at $5, to closed-circuit, night-seeing television systems, custom-designed at $4,000. There is no protection guaranteed, however, against the bold criminal who knows there is little chance of his being sent to prison-even if he is caught. And if he spends a brief time in prison, he can still refuse to work, and the courts will not allow prison authorities to punish him. The courts have refused to execute Sirhan Sirhan, despite a courageous jury's determined efforts.

It has taken nearly a year to bring Charles Manson and his horde of sadistic cutthroats to trial.

Richard Speck is still lounging in jail, four years after butchering eight helpless nurses. The gaunt, sallow, emaciated murderer is reported to have become a robust 250 pounder on the jail fare, provided by taxpayers, many of whom cannot afford to eat so well-even if they had Speck's leisure to do so.

In the case of the People vs. Solomon, in a California court, a lady who had been robbed and assaulted was denied her constitutional right to identify her assailant to the jury, and the defendant's confession was not permitted to be introduced as evidence.

But not all criminals use a gun for their initial depredations; some of them use the court room direct. Several years ago a "nurse" who had been employed only a short time, in a small community hospital, claimed she hurt her back lifting a basket of laundry.

Court records proved it was the third time she had suffered a similar "injury". Nevertheless, the courts awarded her damages which bankrupted two good doctors, and permanently closed the hospital.

So many legal bandits are out hunting someone to sue that even churches have started carrying liability insurance. And as long as our courts enable greedy thieves to prey on the public, decent people will continue to be victimized.

Congress' proposed $3.2 billion crime bill is not likely to do any more than gouge the taxpayers a little deeper, and hamstring local police.

Is a nation civilized when its laws fail to protect law-abiding citizens, yet adequately shelter the criminal, while he takes what he pleases? Should honest men be forced to cower behind locks and bars while criminals roam at will?

How long will Christian America permit this sacred cow free range?

Canyon Housing Is Scarce

Housing in Canyon is acutely scarce for the fall as a record number of students and faculty members at West Texas State University hunt for a place to live. University officials are predicting well over 8,000 students when the doors open in late August. Housing in the city—including WTSU's dormitories—has remained static. Even so, the office of the dean of student life reports that men's dormitories are not yet filled for the fall semester. The dean of women's office reports that upperclassmen women's residence halls have been filled by reservation since April. Freshman women's dorms have been reserved since June.

But, the office says, reservations are being cancelled almost daily and the waiting list is diminishing. Roland Black, manager of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, said he knows of no available homes in the city. He is unsure of the apartment situation. "I've had about 200 inquiries already on the phone, by mail and in person," he said. Black said new college instructors began looking in Canyon early in the spring or summer for housing. As a result, he said he has not had many requests recently from new teachers. "Probably all of them have made arrangements unless some are planning to come in the week before classes start thinking they can find something right off," he said.

Black said the majority of his requests are from students seeking houses, apartments or rooms. "I've had letters from Oklahoma, Kansas and even from a girl in Japan," he said.

Black asked that anyone with a room, apartment or house to rent contact him at the chamber office.

Cheryl Davis Is All-Star

Cheryl Davis, all-state guard for the Canyon Eagles girls basketball team two years, played Saturday in the All-Star Texas-Oklahoma girls' basketball game. Miss Davis was chosen to play on the team after her performance in mid-July on the Texas All-Star North team.

During Saturday's game, which the Texas girls lost 75-78, Miss Davis pulled down 12 rebounds. She played guard for the 1969 state championship team.

She was named to the all-state team both years. Miss Davis graduated from Canyon High in June.

Bryan Garner Hits Hole-in-1

Bryan Garner, 11 years old, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gary Garner, made a hole in one Tuesday at Huber Country Club at Borger.

Bryan is on the junior golf tour and was playing at Borger.

It was the 18th hole which is 155 yards. He was playing with a Maxfli ball. He is to be awarded a trophy by the company.

Bryan came in second earlier this year at the junior golf tournament at Hunsley Hills Golf Club here. The Garners are members of Canyon City Club.

Buffalo Club Directors Meet Matson, Talk Post-Game Reviews, Area Chapters

Directors of the Buffalo Club laid initial plans Tuesday night for establishing similar clubs in area towns, for post-game reviews and further money raising.

Randy Matson, who begins duties Saturday as executive secretary of the club, was present and spoke briefly to the 20 directors.

The club is a fund-raising organization for scholarships for West Texas State University athletes.

The members briefly discussed establishing chapters of the Buffalo Club in Panhandle towns.

Boyce Box, club president, said he feels a town should provide one scholarship—$1,500—to establish a chapter.

He appointed Ed Flood as chairman of a committee to work on starting other chapters.

Biggest item for discussion for the evening was when, where and how to hold this fall's post-game review by Coach Joe Kerbel.

Kerbel usually holds a film review following Saturday afternoon football games in the fall. Last year, the reviews were held on Mondays.

But, there was dissension in the club as to when to have the meeting.

Some said Tuesday was a better day. Others said Monday.

It was hinted at the meeting that only one such review will be held. In the past, a review has been held in Canyon and in Amarillo.

says, "I wasn't very excited about the finish or the event."

Before he graduated from Pampa High School he had put the 12-pound high school shot 64-7 and set state records in both that event and the discus. He was also a standout high school basketball and football player.

Just prior to his graduation from high school he competed in a meet against collegiate performers and became the first high school boy to put the 16-pound shot as far as 60 feet.

Matson chose Texas A&M out of the over 100 schools seeking him. He earned a position on the 1964 U.S. Olympic team for the Tokyo games and placed second with a 66-3/4 put. He added a gold first place medal at the 1968 games in Mexico City.

At the Mexico City Olympics he established a new olympic mark with an effort of 67-10 1/2.

In the one year Matson played basketball at A&M he led the Aggies in rebounding. He gave up the sport because his weight dropped too much during the season.

Nearly every honor which can be given to an amateur athlete has been earned by Matson, including the Sullivan Award in 1967, which yearly goes to the outstanding amateur athlete in the United States.

Matson graduated with a degree in business from Texas A&M in 1968. He did post-graduate work there the following year.

Matson is married to the former Margaret Burns of Pampa and the couple has one daughter. They are expecting their second child in September.

State of Nigeria where he taught in a mission school. It was a boarding school principally for children of Baptist missionaries but not exclusively.

Jonathan taught history, geography, and physical education. "I had to do a lot of preparation," he noted. He also taught Sunday School and training union and was in charge of a group of young people in the church he attended.

In addition to this, he kept study hall at the school twice a day and twice a week at night. "We had to provide a home atmosphere for the children so there was plenty of week end activity," he declared.

Low reported that during holidays he sometimes worked in hospitals and clinics doing whatever was to be done and on occasion worked in relief clinics with refugees from the war.

He said the Ibos do not feel dishonored by losing the civil war. "They put up a remarkable effort," he said, "and now I think they want peace."

He said he was treated well while he was in Nigeria. He lived among the Yoruba tribe which is a tribe of polite people. "They are gracious to each other and they were certainly gracious to me," he declared.

New Mexico State Eyed For MV Conference Membership

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Memphis State was established as the solid conference favorite and expansion plans were discussed during a weekend meeting by the Missouri Valley Conference.

Each of the conference's football coaches who were interviewed during the Saturday session named Memphis State as the conference favorite and Memphis State coach Bill Murphy said his ball club is the team to beat in this year's conference race.

Other teams competing for the title are North Texas State University, University of Tulsa, University of Louisville and Wichita State University. West Texas State University, the conference's newest member, and Drake, which has been out of the conference race for several years, will compete for the title as soon as schedules can be arranged.

Conference commissioner DeWitt Weaver was asked about the conference's expansion plans.

"We have had formal applications from at least six schools and are checking out the possibility of their qualifications," said Weaver.

The only schools Weaver named as possible new members were Marquette and New Mexico State.

"New Mexico State has advanced to the stage where we are going to send an expansion group to Las Cruces to visit the school. That will be done in the near future."

While the press conference was in progress over the weekend, the story leaked out and was published that the conference is moving its office to Dallas. That move is expected to take place near Sept. 1.

Plainview Red Wins Pony Express Races

For the second year in a row, the Plainview Red team won the World Championship Pony Express Races held in Canyon last Saturday night.

The team won the right to continue holding a set of traveling saddlebags. If Plainview wins the tournament next year, the bags will be theirs.

The Swisher County Sheriff's Posse women's team won the women's division championship.

The Randall County Sheriff's Posse sponsored the two-day races, which were held in conjunction with a Canyon Days celebration in the city.

Placing second in the men's division was the riding club from Petersburg. Third was a team from Caney, Okla.

Second in the women's division was Rolling Hills Riding Club and third was the team from Floydada.

Fourteen teams from Texas and Oklahoma were entered in the races. They included teams from Canyon, Rolling Hills, Hereford, Lewisville, Carrollton, Caney, Okla., Petersburg, Plainview, Floydada, Lubbock, Kress and Tulsa.

About 5,000 persons attended both nights of racing.

Jacobs-Lehnick Marriage Is Solemnized Saturday

Sharlette Jean Elizabeth Jacobs became the bride of Jerry Wayne Lehnick Saturday night in the First United Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jacobs, 6 Country Club Drive. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis A. Lehnick, 2005 1st Ave.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an organza wedding gown, accented by Venice lace that covered the high stand-up collar and the cuffs on the short puffed sleeves. A single layer of lace bordered the floorlength front pleat, the hem of the dress and the empire waist. The bodice of the dress was strapless with a sheer layer of organza covering it. To further accent this dress, a bow was fashioned at the empire waist at the top of the self pleat. The self-train was fully gathered in the back, flowing out to an oval-shaped skirt.

The bride carried a cascade arrangement of pink sensation roses and white stephanotis accented with light pink and white baby's breath and pink and white satin streamers tied with love knots.

The communion and choir rails were draped with soft pink pleated satin drapes. The altar was backed with a large arch style candelabra holding light and dark pink tapers and decorated with large palm clusters. Seven branch candelabra accented with large foliage clusters stood at the ends of the altar and at the outside edges of the bridal party. Immediately flanking the bride couple were giant round topiary trees of pittisporium foliage.

and dark and light pink mums. White love birds were nestled among the mums and foliage of each tree. The traditional white aisle cloth runner and bridal predieu were also used.

The double ring ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Strauss Atkinson, assisted by the Rev. J. Frank Peery.

Maid of honor was Cynthia Byars. Bridesmaids included Jamie Olson and Susan Swartzell. Linda Dones of Hereford was junior bridesmaid.

Debbie Love, cousin of the groom, was flower girl. Guy Matthew Conner served as ring bearer.

Michael Dwayne Shappley was best man. Groomsmen were Eddie Jacobs, Greg Lehnick, and Steven Russell, all of Canyon.

Ushers were David Erwin, Lon Conner and Stoney Ormsby.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of Canyon High School and is now a student at West Texas State University. She is employed by the WTSU library.

The groom was a 1969 graduate of CHS and is now a student at WTSU. He is employed at Western Auto.

"(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to the misconduct or disability of particular persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court."

"(8) After such investigation as it deems necessary, the Commission may in its discretion issue a private reprimand, or if the Commission determines that the situation merits such action, it may order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal, or retirement of a person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefor, it shall issue an order of public censure or it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal, or retirement, as the case may be, of the person in question holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission."

"(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order public censure, retirement or removal, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary."

"(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement or removal, due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed."

"(12) No person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal."

"(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to and cumulative of the methods of removal of persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section provided elsewhere in this Constitution."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1970, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment relating to the removal, retirement, or censure of Justices, Judges, and Justices of Peace under prescribed circumstances."

Priced even lower than Chevelles and Novas were last year.

than our previous lowest priced hardtop.

America's most popular mid-size car is now the lowest priced mid-size hardtop. That's a fact. No matter what others may claim.

And here's another fact. Right now your Chevy dealer is on Chevrolet Savings Time. Great clearance deals on the Chevelle of your choice. Top trade-in dollars on your present car.

It's like saving money on the best. And how can you beat that?

Nova $159 less*
making it the lowest priced Chevy.

Several months ago we introduced Novas at a new low price. And your Chevrolet dealer may still have some left. But you better hurry, because he's now offering summer clearance deals on all new Novas in stock.

On top of that great $159 price reduction and dealer clearance savings, you get all the things those small cars can't give you. Like room for five people.

Nova. Our top saver. Putting you first, keeps us first.

*Based on manufacturer's suggested retail prices, including federal excise tax and suggested dealer new vehicle preparation charges.

Clearance savings now.

You're back on Chevrolet Savings Time.

WEST TEXAS STATE TELEPHONE NUMBERS WILL CHANGE SUNDAY

At 12:01 a.m. Sunday, August 2, a new telephone system will go into service at West Texas State University. Called Centrex, the new system will improve telephone service on, to and from the campus. Each telephone on campus, including those in dormitory rooms, will have a separate number. Calls from off-campus may be dialed directly to the West Texas State number.

Administrative office telephone numbers for the university will be listed in the new Amarillo-Canyon directory which will be delivered late in November. The following list of administrative numbers at WTSU may be used as a temporary reference until the new telephone directory is issued. If the telephone number you wish to call is not listed, please call West Texas State information, 656-2011.

University Defensive Line Has Potential But Lacks Experience

(This is part of a series of articles on a position-by-position analysis of the 1970 West Texas State University football team.)

West Texas State's defensive line underwent a face lifting during spring drills and the outcome is a group of players with potential, but little experience.

The 1970 squad has a group of talented and experienced placement kickers, but the punters have no collegiate experience.

Tackle Stan Hansen was the only 1969 starter who played in the spring practice final Varsity-Alumni game. He was joined by a trio of junior college transfers.

Rick Fangman, Hereford senior, missed the spring game because of a shooting accident. He accidentally shot himself in the foot with a .22 pistol midway through spring practice. He lettered as a sophomore and was a starting guard last fall.

Starting that spring game along with 1960's Hansen were guards Thomas Tate and David Denny and tackle Alex Davis.

Hansen could be one of the Buffalo standouts this fall. He started at middle linebacker his sophomore year, but suffered a knee injury during an intramural game following the season. The knee was operated on and he missed spring drills that season.

When Bill McKinney came through at the middle linebacker post last fall, the Buffalo coaching staff was able to move Hansen to the line. He started at tackle all last fall. The former all-stater from Las Cruces, N. M., is 6-3 and 240.

Davis, at the other tackle post, is a lanky 6-3 and 190. He has 4.9 speed in the 40-yard dash.

Backing up the number one tackles are letterman Charlie Reade and sophomore Chuck Wilbur. Reade, at 5-11 and 190, is the smallest man on the defensive line. Wilbur, 6-1, and 207, is from Wellington.

Like Davis, Denny received a battle field promotion during spring drills. Both Davis and Denny were elevated to the first unit after standout performances in the first scrimmage session of the spring.

Denny, whose older brother Jimmy played at West Texas State in the early 1960s, is a 5-9, 205-pounder from Borger. He transferred to West Texas State from New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell. Jimmy Denny is now an assistant coach at Amarillo High School.

Tate, a strong 6-0, 215-pounder from Mobile, Ala., transferred from Eastern Arizona Junior College. Backing up Denny and Tate at the start of fall drills will be Fangman and junior college transfer Manuel Gomez. Clarence Redic and Matias Garza have handled the majority of Buffalo placement kicking for the past two years and both return. Sophomore quarterbacks Ron Leach and Jim Albracht are also talented placement kickers and Al Phillips is a potential kick-off man.

John Grigsby of Garland, Leach and Phillips are the punters and all are sophomores.

Redic was the nation's fourth leading kick scorer as a sophomore, totaling 67 points on 34 extra points in 35 tries and 11 field goals in 28 attempts. Last year he tallied 35 points kicking with 17 of 21 points after touch-down and six of 10 field goals.

Garza, the smallest man on the team at 5-8 and 144, booted a 44-yard field goal in his first attempt at West Texas State. He was true on three of four extra points last fall.

Redic, a junior from Odessa, is a strong kickoff man, consistently booming the ball into the opponent's endzone. Albracht, a sophomore who played at Alamo Catholic High School in Amarillo, and Leach both have strong legs. Phillips is a former fullback at Farwell High School.

Grigsby and Leach are expected to do most of the team's punting this fall. Grigsby saw no varsity action last fall as a freshman, but he was carried on the squad as a backup punter for Roland Reichardt. The regular Buffalo punter was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams.

Leach, a quarterback from Andrews, injured his knee last fall and has undergone a successful operation. He was held out of most of the spring drills, but managed to get into the Varsity-Alumni game long enough to score on a quarterback sneak and boot an extra point.

Party Planned For Readers

The annual party for the children who participated in the reading club sponsored by the Canyon City Library will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. at the Varsity Theater, according to Mrs. James M. White, president of the Canyon Library Board.

"Run Wild, Run Free," a new movie starring Mark Lester who played in "Oliver!" will be shown to the youngsters.

The movie is free to all children who participated in the program.

Children who read at least 12 books while enrolled in the program will receive certificates from the Texas Reading Club. So far, about 70 children have read 12 books. The program ends tomorrow, and it is expected that more children will have reported 12 books read before the day is over.

Mrs. Chester Pierle and Mrs. Mary Huntington, librarians, will make the presentation, along with members of the Canyon City Library Board.

About 100 of the 165 enrolled in the reading program are expected to attend the party.

Horse Club Organizes

An organizational and riding meeting for the Tee-Anchor 4-H Horse Club will be held Friday at 6:30 p.m. in the WTSU Rodeo Arena, located east of the University.

The club is open to all persons in Randall County between the ages of 9 and 19.

New members are welcome.

Persons interested in joining the club may call Cathy Horton at 655-2004 at night or on weekends.

Group Gives Performance

"Happening Now" was the title of the musical presented last night by the Youth Choir of the Killean First Baptist Church at the Calvary Baptist Church.

The folk musical, directed by David Anderson, was written by Bob Oldenburg and Eddie Lunn.

Accompanying the group were Lauraine Ball on piano, Stan Looke on percussion; Bill Stevenson on lead guitar and Mike Goings on rhythm guitar.

The 46-member choir spent the night in homes of members of the Calvary Baptist Church. They are on their way home from a week of conference at Glorieta Baptist Assembly in Glorieta, N. M.

News Brief

Marsha Jones, 223 Bordeaux Lane, is at Lubbock Christian College attending the 12th annual Music Camp that started July 19 and ends tomorrow.

Newspapers Fighting Battle To Keep You Informed . . . Izzard

People have the right to know and without that right the people would not be free, an Amarillo newspaper editor told about 100 teachers Tuesday.

Wes Izzard, editor and publisher of the Amarillo Daily News, spoke during the second day of a three-day Living Textbook Workshop held on the West Texas State University campus.

"The first thing a newspaper is supposed to do is print the news," Izzard said, "its first responsibility is to inform the people."

The editor said a bad newspaper is better than no newspaper at all and infinitely better than a newspaper controlled by a political party or power.

Even with the basic, guaranteed right of the people to know, Izzard said it "is astounding how few public officials have given this right much thought."

He said for many years the newspapers in this country have been fighting for the right to attend meetings closed to the public but which deal with public monies or the public fate.

"Thousands of American newspapers are constantly fighting this battle," he said, "not necessarily for themselves, but for the citizens of America."

Izzard told the teachers they would be surprised to learn of the many boards, Congressional committees, which hold closed sessions even when the public good is at stake.

Another function of the newspaper, the editor said, is to stir people to take action when something illegal, immoral or otherwise wrong is going on in the community.

Through a paper's editorial columns, apathy of a community is also fought, he said.

In recent times, Izzard pointed out, the public has demanded that the newspaper take on a new role—that of entertainment. With comic strips, crossword puzzles and human interest features, papers are now providing entertainment for readers.

Izzard said he also feels the newspaper is responsible to the community as an example of good taste.

"Some don't agree with this," he said. "They say the newspaper should print it and let the reader decide."

The community itself has a responsibility to the newspaper, he said.

"That responsibility is simple—pay attention. The paper is put out for you. Read it, get mad at it. Make a friend of your newspaper."

Other speakers during the three-day conference included Jim Clark, managing editor of the Amarillo papers, S. B. Whittenberg, publisher of the Amarillo Globe-Times, Dr. James P. Cornette, WTSU president, and Thomas Thompson, editor of the Globe-Times.

The conference, which was sponsored by WTSU

Robert Winn In Algeria With ICASALS Project

The first contingent of seven ICASALS, Inc. research scientists has arrived in Algeria to begin Phase I of a three-year development project. Among the seven is Robert M. Winn, formerly of the WTSU geology department.

ICASALS, Inc., is the corporate affiliate of the International Center for Arid and Semi-Arid Land Studies at Texas Tech University.

The project, sponsored by SONATRACH, Algeria's national petroleum company, is concerned with all areas of the North African nation. It will include hydrological investigations, soils studies, research in the uses of agricultural chemicals and the development of agribusiness environmental studies and a professional training program for Algerians.

Heading the project is Dr. Emmanuel T. G. M. Van Niekoop of the Texas Tech University park administration faculty.

The initial portion of the project will be the orientation of the scientists to the requirements of Algeria. This will include conversations with government officials, including representatives of SONATRACH, the Ministry of Industry and Energy and the Ministry of Agriculture and Agrarian Reform.

Winn is one of the three hydrologists involved in the project. He has served as a geologist and hydrologist for the Midland Division of Mobil Oil Corp. He has been a consultant as a groundwater specialist for Mobil Oil, the Sunset International Oil Corp., Tyra and Tyra Oil Properties and the Hale County Soil and Water Conservation District.
